

The Genocide of Goddess Societies

“From Nature to Matriarchy to Patriarchy”

Introduction

About the Author Bret C. Sheppard

Nature based Zoomorphism and the stars

Discussion about ancient astrology and animal symbols related to both fertility and the stars.

Base belief systems in paleolithic times

Introduction into proto-belief systems regarding artistic records in cave paintings and relief sculptures.

Heirophany of the divine in nature

When the Earth spoke one nature based language

Explores the first Earth languages around the Black sea and around the world

Arrata and Danube Cultures

Exploring pre-Sumerian and Pre-Phoenician Cultures

Perception of the mother, divine feminine

Ancient perceptions of tribal motherhood in a matrilinear society.

The story of the Goddess Mammu, Inanna

Analysis of the first Goddess figures and their meanings.

Matrilinear tribal equality

Influence of Priestesses and Goddesses in ancient cultures north of the Black Sea.

The fictionalization of Shammurāmat AKA Ashtaroth (Asherah), AKA Semiramis, Queen of the Assyrian Empire between 811 and 808 BCE

A look at one of the most influential women of the Assyrian Empire.

The Assyrian God King list and The Ancestral Cuneiform spirits of Solomon

Discussion on the perversion of Assyrian History by their descendants

800 BC The year the Goddess became a God

A brief look into anti-Goddess propaganda for the patriarchs and god kings

The brotherhood of the snake

An all male secret society and precursor to the pagan Jewish Goddess worship of Asherah, AKA Ashtaroth, and Kebyl.

The invention of the Gods

A brief look at the idealization of the God Kings and the gods that represented them.

Numerology in ritual invention

Discussion of the ritual importance placed on the trinity, the power of nine, and the significance of twelve.

Allegorical history of the Black Sea cultures

Allegories associated with the deluge and other real events that were either catastrophic or Culture changing events.

The birth of the Underworld and Capadocia

The imprisonment of the Goddess related to seasonal changes.

Greek Androgyny of contemporary Gods and Goddesses